“ Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached
-Swami Vivekananda ”

Warm Greetings from Partha Ghosh School of Leadership, IIT Kharagpur.

The Partha Ghosh School of Leadership has started a nascent journey at IIT Kharagpur in 2018 with generous support from Dr. Partha S. Ghosh, a distinguished alumnus of IIT Kharagpur and a former senior partner at McKinsey & Company, Japan and USA. Since then, the school, once an academy, is now working on a holistic vision of empowering individuals with critical thinking, collaborative attitude, cooperative skills best driving the self-confidence and courage of their personal abilities. An individual may be a student, a working professional, an academician, or anyone from any walk of life; but, as a transformative process, the school is working on a program to best connect the dots between contemporary challenges of the world and those in the lives of individuals so that they position themselves as parts of an inspired teamwork. At the end of the day, the individual must surge by bringing forward-

- The right potential to solve the challenges integrating their intellect and collective ethics (head), emotions and empathy (heart), and innovation and entrepreneurship (hand)
- Inspired leadership to lead changes: moving from 'job-seekers' at a personal level (vyasti) to 'job-givers' to many and many at the collective level (samasti)

In the School, we regularly conduct events for young, experts, professionals and teachers just not to inculcate such leadership qualities but also to make them aware of present challenges, potential technologies, and the path ahead to engage at the global level. Accordingly, the school envisions to create future leaders based on their emerging skill-set by solving real-world problems at an aggregate level instead of a myopic-personal standpoint. Of all such programs, the NFLP (Nurturing Future Leadership Program) under the ambit of Malaviya Mission, the Ministry of Education is one such magnanimous venture. Till date, the school has evolved by organizing several such programs of which organizational experience has evolved in first two, to reaching a good to very good level of interaction in the subsequent initiatives. The present program is in the upward chain of hope and resurgence.

Swami Vivekananda once told “Take up one idea. Make that one idea your life - think of it, dream of it, live on that idea”. For NFLP (Nurturing Future Leadership Program) under the ambit of Malaviya Mission, the Ministry of Education, this is the primary imperative. Regardless of the background, profession, and education, we welcome individuals from across regions, institutions and cultures to collaborate with each other, develop ability to move together and merge together to unleash a greater good.

The School of Leadership at IIT Kharagpur is now equipped to provide the necessary support, knowledge, technology and access to best nurture the spirit of Leadership, which is not just about achieving personal success; but about making a positive impact in the minds of the collective groups, who will march forward to fulfil the dreams of VIKSIT BHARAT 2047. Therefore, let us embrace the challenges that come our way, learn from the experiences, and strive to be the best version of ourself. I welcome you in this journey that passes through this programme.

We welcome you to join us and also welcome any institution that wants to upgrade their potentials through training and certifications.

Respectfully,

Prof. Joy Sen
