To

Principal/Director,

Dear Sir/Madam,

I hope this message finds you well.

On behalf of the Universal Human Values (UHV) team, I am delighted to invite your esteemed institution to once again join as an Organizing Partner for the upcoming 11th International Conference on Human Values in Higher Education (ICHVHE 2026), scheduled to be held from 27-29 November 2026 in online mode.

Organizing Partners will be prominently acknowledged in the conference proceedings, media briefs, and other promotional materials. In addition, the Head of each partner institution will be included as a member of the Patrons Committee. The key responsibilities and benefits of being an Organizing Partner are enclosed at the end of this email.

The 10th International Conference on Human Values in Higher Education, conducted online from 19–21 December 2025 witnessed an overwhelming response – over 7,380 registrations from 55 countries and active participation of over 5,000 delegates representing 27 countries.

Building on this momentum, this year's (11th Conference, November 2026) conference is centred around the theme:

"Transformative Role of Education for Global Peace & Harmony"

We believe that your continued collaboration and leadership will be invaluable in advancing this shared vision. Your participation will also inspire and encourage many other institutions to contribute meaningfully to this important global dialogue.

Should you require any further information, please feel free to contact the regional representatives listed at the end of this email.

As a token of your acceptance, we would appreciate it if you could kindly share your signed Acknowledgement / Consent through below mentioned google form.

We look forward to your positive response and to the opportunity of working closely with you once again on this important initiative.

With warm regards,

Convener
ICHVHE 2026

Some benefits for Organizing Partners

- Your institution will be formally recognized as an Organizing Partner in the conference proceedings, media briefs, and promotional materials
- The head of your institution will be included in the Patrons Committee, providing visibility and leadership in this global forum
- Your institution will be seen as a key contributor in promoting Value-driven Education for youth
- You will be part of a respected network of national and international partners working towards a happy and peaceful world
- One booth for presentation
- Collaboration as International Partners (Boost NAAC & NBA points)
- Brief Report about the UHV initiatives at your university - Experience sharing of something significant that can be replicated by placing your institutional experience on UHV as a handout for all delegates. The earlier you put this out, the more delegates can view it. This can be a report, a website, a video or other digital asset about your institution and its experience with UHV

Responsibilities of Organising Partners

- Help promote the conference among your networks and encourage foreign delegates to join the conference (foreign partners with whom you have an MOU, your alumni overseas...)
- Encourage participation of senior decision-makers from your institution (Trustees, VC, Directors, Deans...)
- Financial contribution of Rs.50,000
- Refer UHV website and the conference website from your university website. Include these details on your social media handles

About the Conference

This conference, being conducted since 2012, aims to explore and share the possibilities of addressing the need for human values in education. Our long-term goal is to promote holistic, value-based education globally and foster a humane society that ensures the well-being of all, generation after generation. In this process, the SDGs are naturally resolved.

The 10th conference saw over 7,380 registrations from 55 countries and was held virtually from 19-21 December 2025 with the theme "Empowering Youth through Value-driven Education — for a Happy and Peaceful World.". It was hosted by SRMIST, NCR-Campus and supported by 37 other organising partners from India and Bhutan.

This year's conference theme is "Transformative Role of Education for Global Peace & Harmony". It will feature panel discussions centered around five six topics:

- Higher Education
- School Education
- Holistic Health
- Counselling
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
- Extension (Village, Rehab, Jails...)

There are encouraging results to share at this conference to motivate more institutions to join in this effort. Through our collective effort, and with the advocacy of the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) https://www.aicte-india.org/ and University Grant Commission (UGC) https://www.ugc.gov.in/, we have been able to sensitize education policymakers toward the need for human values and prepare more than 90,000 faculty to teach UHV. Over 4,000 institutions belonging to 270 universities across the Nation are today making UHV a part of their academic curriculum, preparing their faculty, and conducting UHV courses in a well-organized manner.
